

D Entry

TLDR: When you elevate up to floor 5 you reach a place that's more than alive

With 3 Giant TVs and at least 1 game to play
D-Entry is always there to brighten your day

When we're not studying we like to party or "networking with ethanol" because that sounds more smart-y
But if you're not into that, that's cool too
We have lots of times when we just chill with food

Not to mention our GRT is amazing as well,
It's easy to see that she's super swell,
She cooks us some 5 star snacks,
And we watch movies and relax
We joke around and love to laugh,
Who knows maybe you'll get on our wall full of photographs.

Everyone knows that reading is fine but really you should come and chill sometime.
