

WELCOME TO D ENTRY

Entry is Home

D Entry is a close knit group of friends who can be found making fun of each other one minute and having sadboi™ conversations the next. We're completely comfortable with each other and think of everyone in the entry as family.

Spontaneity

Residents often have bursts of spontaneity and will do random things like midnight hot chocolate runs to the Green Building and duct taping our friends to the wall (he's okay, don't worry).

Fun and Games

The D Entry lounge is never empty. We love watching movies/TV, playing board games, card games, and video games (ie. Smash) together.
