B-Entry is a social, laid-back entry with a strong family-style culture. You can often find us talking in the lounge late at night, playing uproarious games of skill and chance and popular culture, or watching a movie together. We enjoy going out to entry dinners in Boston and Cambridge, and if it's someone's birthday, we'll bake them their favorite cake :D

Come visit B-Entry! Eat brocookioreos in Fort Awesome; laugh at Condom Head; hang out with us!

most quotable: *"Good decisions are bad decisions without consequences."
