

Dentry

TL;DR: An awesome entry that just likes to chill in the lounge and have fun by watching TV, playing games, ordering food, being sarcastic, joking around, etc.

When you walk upstairs to Floor 5,
You reach a place that's more than alive
With 2 giant TVs and endless games to play,
D-Entry is always there to brighten your day.

There's movie marathons happening at every hour,
But don't worry, we do take breaks to shower,
And from Chipotle Tuesdays to the Maccon Runs,
We always spend our time having lots of funz.

But no matter what, we look out for our D-Entryites,
So it's always easy to find help on psets late at night,
Because there's people majoring in like 15 different courses,
And we know all about them Van der Waals forces.

When we're not studying though we sometimes like to party,
Or "network with ethanol" because that sounds more smart-y,
But if you're not into that, that's cool too,
We have lots of times when we just chill with food.

Not to mention our GRTs are bombass as well,
It's easy to see that they're super swell,
They cook us really awesome 5 star meals,
And at the price of FREE, that's quite a steal.

We're social, we're outgoing, we're fun to be around,
It's unlikely you'll ever find any one with a frown,
So the choice is easy, as easy as ABC,
There's no doubt that D Entry is "D" place to be.
